

UN DESIGN THE RED LINE

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

These programs are part of Undesign the Redline, an interactive exhibit created by designing the WE that explores the history of structural racism and inequality.

SEGREGATED BY DESIGN

September 24: 2 pm - Tates Creek Branch

Presenters Barbara Sutherland and Rona Roberts share examples of local policies and actions that have perpetuated segregation over the years. For high school and up

COMMUNITY READS BOOK DISCUSSION – THE COLOR OF LAW BY RICHARD ROTHSTEIN

September 26: 4 pm - Tates Creek Branch

Discuss Richard Rothstein's award-winning book, The Color of Law, exploring how American cities became racially divided as governments systematically imposed policy-driven residential segregation. For adults

TALLER PARA COMPRADORES DE VIVIENDA POR PRIMERA VEZ

El 28 de septiembre: 5 pm – Sucursal Village

Taller gratuito para aprender más sobre la asistencia para compradores de vivienda por primera vez a través de REACH, Inc. Para adultos

JUST IN TIME EQUITY DIALOGUE

October 4: 2 pm - Northside Branch

Kentucky State University's 4-H Youth Development Program will provide a lesson on diversity, inclusion, and cultural sensitivity. For tweens and teens

NON-REQUIRED READING - COMMUNITY READS: TEEN EDITION

October 5: 5 pm - Central Library

Join us to explore the history of structural racism and inequality in our world, where participants will discuss "Piecing Me Together" by Renee Watson, "American Street" by Ibi Zoboi, and/or "Anger Is a Gift" by Mark Oshiro. For teens

COMMUNITY READS BOOK DISCUSSION – THE COLOR OF LAW BY RICHARD ROTHSTEIN

October 7: 3 pm - Beaumont Branch

COMMUNITY READS BOOK DISCUSSION – THE COLOR OF LAW BY RICHARD ROTHSTEIN

October 10: 4 pm - Eastside Branch

JUST IN TIME EQUITY DIALOGUE

October 11: 5 pm - Tates Creek Branch

A RAISIN IN THE SUN

October 11: 6 pm – Northside Branch

Discuss A Raisin in the Sun, which follows a black family's experience in South Chicago as they attempt to improve their financial circumstances with an insurance payout following the father's death. For adults

FIRST TIME HOME BUYER WORKSHOP

October 12: 5 pm – Village Branch

A free workshop for library patrons who are interested in learning more about first time home buyer assistance through REACH, Inc. Presented by Elisa Cooley, director of REACH, Inc. For adults

GENEALOGY AND LOCAL HISTORY DAY

October 14: 9:30 am – Central Library

Journalist Tom Eblen, Genealogist and Independent Researcher Denyce Peyton, and Rusty Heckaman from the KY Department for Libraries and Archives will present on topics related to genealogy and the history of structural racism. For adults

STEM BY THE NUMBERS

October 14: 2 pm – Central Library

Participants will analyze data and learn about underrepresented groups in STEM careers. For grades 3-12

WALKING TOUR - LOST LEXINGTON

October 15: 2 pm – Central Library

Embark on an hour-long tour of Downtown Lexington locations featured in Peter Brackney's book, Lost Lexington. For middle school and up

EARLY BIRD BOOK GROUP – THE COLOR OF LAW BY RICHARD ROTHSTEIN

October 18: 9:30 am – Tates Creek Branch

Discuss Richard Rothstein's award-winning book, The Color of Law, exploring how American cities became racially divided as governments systematically imposed policy driven residential segregation. For adults

COMMUNITY READS BOOK DISCUSSION – THE COLOR OF LAW BY RICHARD ROTHSTEIN

October 18: 5 pm – Central Library

JUST IN TIME EQUITY DIALOGUE

October 18: 5 pm - Beaumont Branch

WALKING TOUR - LOST LEXINGTON

October 18: 6 pm – Central Library

THE COLOR OF LAW AND JUST ACTION: AN EVENING WITH THE AUTHORS

October 24: 6:30 pm - UK Gatton Student Center

A keynote address by Leah Rothstein and a conversation with Richard and Leah Rothstein and KET Director of Public Affairs Renee Shaw. For adults

JUST IN TIME EQUITY DIALOGUE

October 25: 5 pm – Village Branch

LGB+TEA READERS CLUB – FEATURING THE SUM OF US

October 26: 5 pm – Eastside

A teen-only LGBTQ+ Book Club. Participants will discuss The Sum of Us (Adapted for Young Readers) by Heather McGhee. For teens

Para aprender más o leer esta información en español, visite lexpublib.org/undesign y cambie la lengua por la opción "Select Language" a la parte inferior de la página principal.