Director of Education
Apply at www.lexpublib.org/jobs
by 5:00pm on Wednesday, March 3rd.
serves a merged city/county metro area with approximately 320,000 residents with six locations, strong virtual library, and robust community-based services. The Library is an integral community partner and resource, serving over 4.5 million customers and lending a record high 4 million items in FY20. During the COVID-19 pandemic, we have added a wide array of new and adapted services to support our community as it learns, plays, and grows. Take a look at www.lexpublib.org/about to see what we do and how we do it.
The Bluegrass

Lexington is a vibrant mid-sized city, known for its universities, bourbon, and horses. The city boasts a low cost of living, variety of educational options, access to high quality healthcare, plentiful family activities, a rich arts and cultural scene, and a thriving economy. It is centrally located with easy access to Cincinnati or Louisville by car or anywhere in the world by plane. Lexington is unique for its signature landscapes, urban setting, and friendly culture. Take a look at www.commercelexington.com or https://locateinlexington.com/ to learn more.
Job Summary

The Lexington Public Library seeks a creative and experienced educator to guide the Library’s comprehensive and inclusive educational strategy. The Director of Education is a new position which will be an integral part of the Library’s Senior Leadership Team. The DOE will respond to the educational and workforce development needs of the community during and after the pandemic.

Immediate responsibilities include the development of school support and workforce development services to meet the needs of the greater Lexington community as we emerge from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Compensation & Benefits

Lexington Public Library offers to the candidate who enjoys working in a highly motivated culture the following generous benefits package:

- Medical, Dental and Vision Insurance for the employee and family members at extremely attractive rates.
- Group Term Life Insurance – one times employee’s annual salary at no charge. Additional life and accidental death coverage at competitive rates
- Short Term Disability and Long Term Disability at reasonable rates.
- Vacation – 20 days accrue annually after completion of 8 weeks employment. Accrual limits apply.
- Sick Leave – 12 days accrue annually. Accrual limits apply.
- 9 paid holidays and 2 personal days annually.
- Community projects leave.
- Participation in Kentucky Retirement System CERS pension plan.
- Generous Employee Assistance Program for assistance with problems of daily living.
- Optional 401(k), IRA, and 457 Deferred Compensation plans.